NATIVE PLANTS FOR BEAUTY AND HABITAT

- Eastern Columbine (Aquilegia canadensis)
- Canadian Ginger (Asarum canadense)
- Butterfly Weed (Asclepias turberosa)
- Common Milkweed (Asclepias syriaca)
- Creek Sedge (Carex amphibola)
- Ironwood / American Hornbeam (Carpinus caroliniana)
- Fringed Bleedingheart (Dicentra eximia)
- Purple Coneflower (Echinacea purpurea)
- Joe Pye Weed (Eutrochium purpureum)
- Wild Strawberry (Fragaria virginiana)
- Witch Hazel (Hamamelis virginiana)
- Cardinal Flower (Lobelia cardinalis)
- Ostrich Fern (Matteuchia struthiopteris)
- Virginia Bluebells (Mertensia virginica)
- Canada Mayflower (Mianthemum canadense)
- Sensitive Fern (Onoclea sensibilis)
- Spoon-Leafed Golden Groundsel (Packera obovata)
- Switchgrass (Panicum virgatum)
- Creeping Phlox (Phlox stolonifera)
- Solomon’s Seal (Polygonatum biflorum)

ORGANIZATIONS

- Ecological Landscape Alliance (ecolandscaping.org)
- Groton Garden Club (grotongardenclub.org)
- Grow Native Massachusetts (grownativemass.org)
- Native Plant Trust (nativeplanttrust.org)

BOOKS

- Sara Stein, Noah’s Garden
- Mark Richardson and Dan Jaffe, Native Plants for New England Gardens
- Douglas W. Tallamy, Bringing Nature Home and Nature’s Best Hope

The Groton Garden Club Annual Trust Funds Lecture, February 9 2020
Toby Wolf, Wolf Landscape Architecture / wolflandscape.com